All the committee member & registered alumni attended the meeting.

The Agenda of Alumni meet was as under:

1. Introduction of newly joined members

At the beginning of the academic year, the alumni committee registered 1,192 new members. Few among them attended the Alumni meet, where they introduced themselves, and a few shared their professional experiences.

2. Discussion of activities conducted by Alumni Association

A discussion took place regarding the various co-curricular and extracurricular activities planned by the alumni association. Alumni members were encouraged to showcase their talents through these activities, which will be featured during the Annual Gathering.

3. Discussion on arranging placement drives

Many alumni from the college hold esteemed positions in various prestigious organizations. In response to this success, the committee members have encouraged these alumni to organize placement drives at the college to help current students connect with potential employers. Mr. Aniket Wankhede requested to gear up the placement drive so that more students can be benefitted.

4. To encourage alumni for extension services to the college

Mr. Nikhil Bhute proposed that an alumnus recently solicited the support and services of fellow alumni for the benefit of the college. In response, several alumni expressed their willingness to deliver expert lectures in their areas of specialization. Furthermore, a number of students contributed by donating books to their respective departments.

5. To encourage to form Network for KNM students.

Mr. Mangesh Gomase, an alumnus of Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya (KNM), suggested creating a network for KNM alumni. This network would enable alumni working in various fields to provide support and guidance to the next generation. To facilitate this, it has been decided to create a Facebook page, WhatsApp groups, Instagram and other platforms, which will help alumni stay connected with one another.

During the meeting, Mr. Aniket Wankhede, Rakesh Naktode, Akash Kadhao, Lakhan Bondre, Apurva Bawangade and Rupali Selokar, shared their thoughts and proposed the formation of an action group dedicated to providing placement assistance and guidance for undergraduate and postgraduate students at KNM. Additionally, a musical event was organized by the alumni in collaboration with the college's Music Department.

Many alumni expressed their eagerness to support needy students and have shown willingness to extend their help in the future. The Alumni Meet concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Mamta S. Wagh.
