Department of Botany

Botany Fest

Session 2024-2025

Department of Botany, Kamla Nehru Mahavidyalaya organised an intercollegiate 'Botany Fest- Vasudhaiva Vanaspati Vigyanam' on 28th September 2024 with a theme 'Panchatatva – Warriors of Mother Earth'.

Objectives:

- To introduce the participants to the fundamental principles of Panchatatva, the five elements and their inter-relationships.
- To help the participants understand how to balance and harmonize the 5 elements within themselves and their environment.
- To provide participants with practical tools and techniques to achieve holistic well being by integrating the Panchatatva principles into daily lives.
- To raise awareness about the importance of living in harmony with nature and the interconnectedness of all living beings.

Nature of Activity:

This fest aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their innovative approaches to five elements of life and generate income through their landscaping and miniature skills. The event was inaugurated by Mr. Raj Madankar, Dr. Smeeta Wanjarri and Principal Dr. D. S. Badwaik. The inauguration was marked by the release of a handmade Botany bulletin "Prakruti Spandanam", which highlighted the key themes and objectives of the fest.

The diverse participation underlined the widespread interest and involvement in botany and gardening in relation with Panchatatva. The core activity of the fest involved students presenting their innovative gardening techniques and products. Through these presentations, students had the opportunity to earn income by selling their garden-related products such as Nature Photography, Plants Exhibition, Miniature Garden Exhibition and Best out of Plant Waste. A total of 57 students actively participated in the sales segment of the fest, collectively generating ₹5720. This amount reflects the students' ability to effectively market their gardening creations and highlights the practical benefits of their involvement in the event.

Outcomes:

The Botany Fest successfully achieved its goals by providing a platform for students to demonstrate their gardening skills and earn income. The visitors involvement and the participation from different colleges highlight how important these kinds of activities are for encouraging botany and environmental responsibility. Students used their knowledge creatively and used practical skills and provided contribution for preservation of nature.

We also tried to apply this technique for revenue generation by ideas on their innovative gardening techniques and products. Total 5720 Rs. was generated from this sale comprising of all the categories i. e. Nature Photography, Plants Exhibition, Miniature Garden Exhibition and Best out of Plant Waste.

Number of Beneficiaries:

The fest saw enthusiastic participation from 57 students representing various colleges. Additionally, the event attracted a total of 94 students and 62 teaching faculties.
