

Department of Home-Economics Annual Activity Report 2023-24

Celebration of International Millet Year 2023

Department of Home-Economics has celebrated International Millet Year 2023. A guest lecture was organized on 18th Oct. 2023. Lata Ramaswamy, a renowned nutritionist, invited as a main speaker. The lecture underscored the importance of reintegrating millets into our diets for improved nutrition, health, and sustainability. Total 65 students were present.

poster competition to celebrate millets year 2023

The poster competition held in celebration of Millets Year 2023 was a vibrant showcase of creativity and advocacy for millets on 26/9/2023. Posters depicted various aspects of millets, including their nutritional benefits, ecological sustainability, and cultural importance in different regions. Total 45 students participated in this competition. Mrs. Pradnya Bagalkote, Nutritionist evaluated entries based on creativity, relevance to the theme, clarity of message, and visual impact.

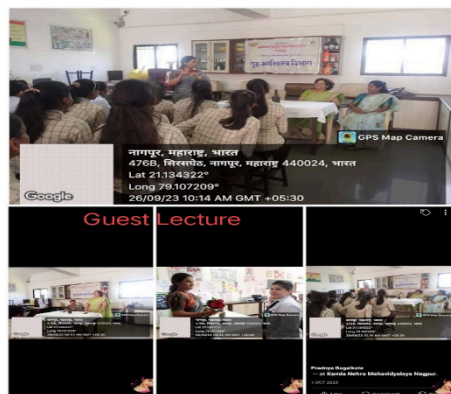

Sale of Bambu Rakhi

A charitable initiative was undertaken by the department of Home-Economics to sell bamboo rakhis at college. A stall of Bambu Rakhi's installed at college from 25th Aug To 26th Aug. 2023 aimed at providing financial aid and support to the tribal communities residing in Melghat.

Guest Lecture on Adolescence Nutrition

The guest lecture organized by department of Home-Economics on Adolescence Nutrition by Dr Pradnya Bagalkote served as an informative session addressing crucial aspects of adolescence nutrition on 26/09/2023. Dr. Bagalkote emphasized the specific nutritional needs of adolescents, including adequate intake of proteins, vitamins, minerals, and essential fatty acids to support growth and development. 45 students from all faculties were present.

Report of Self-Employment Expo-

The Self-Employment Expo organized by the Department of Home Economics successfully empowered students to explore and showcase their entrepreneurial potential within the field. It promoted innovation, creativity, and practical application of home economics knowledge in real-world business scenarios. The Self-Employment Expo organized by the Department of Home Economics provided an enriching platform for 35 students to showcase entrepreneurial ventures and projects related to home economics. Students had the opportunity to network with peers, faculty, industry professionals, and potential investors, fostering collaborations and partnerships for future entrepreneurial endeavors.

Skill Based Workshop by Pidilite-

Department of Home-Economics organized a skill based workshop in collaboration with Pidilite company on 26/10/2023 To 3/11/2023 . Mrs. Bharti Wakde & Dr. Rekha Zoting gives training of various articles to the students. They introduced & Demonstrated different fabric painting techniques such as brush painting, block printing.

