- You will employ yourself efficiently to the best of your ability, will devote your whole time to the work of the organization and will not engage yourself directly or indirectly either honorary or on remuneration in any service, trade, business, vocation or occupation (including agency of an insurance company or in advisory capacity).
- Absence for a continuing period of 8 days including absence on leave though applied for but not granted and when over-stayed for a period of 8 days would make you to lose your lien on the service and the same shall automatically come to an end without any notice or even intimation. In such an eventuality, the Management will draw an irresistible presumption that by remaining absent continuously and unauthorized, you have abandoned your job.
- Privilege leave shall be allowed as per law, Grant of leave will depend on the exigencies of work and shall be at the discretion of the management. Before proceeding on leave, you will have to apply for leave 20 days in advance to the appropriate authority and seek the prior sanction of leave. Similarly, for extension of leave, an application will have to be made in advance so as to reach positively before the expiry of leave originally granted. Mere submission of application will not mean that the leave has been sanctioned. The casual/sick leave will be given as provided under the law depending upon the justification of the ground for availing of leave and the genuine medical certificate supported with the application of leave.
- The management shall have the right to require you to subject yourself at any time during employment with the Company to medical examination. If you are not found medically fit, your services may be terminated at any time by giving you one month's notice or salary in lieu thereof.
- You will be bound by rules and regulations enforced by the management, from time to time in relation to conduct, discipline medical leave, holidays or any matter relating to service conditions which will be deemed as rules, regulations and orders in the part of these terms of employment. The Management reserves the right to modify, alter or delete the existing service rules or to introduce fresh service rules which will binding upon you.
- During the tenure of service, you will keep your emoluments secret from other members of this organization and will treat all information coming to you as strictly confidential and the information contained in all documents and papers and other matters relating to the company will not be divulged by you to any person other than those of the management.
- Your increment will be based on bellow mentioned grade.
However, your increments/promotion and demotions will depend at the sole discretion of the management depending upon your efficiency, intelligence, regular attendance, sense of discipline, loyalty and good behavior and also subject to the prosperity of the organization.
