

Department of Home Economics Visit Report

Visit Report on SARAS - A Self- Employment exhibition

The Saras Self-Employment Exhibition organized by the Government of Maharashtra provided a platform for showcasing entrepreneurial ventures and products of local artisans and self-help groups. The event aimed to promote economic empowerment and self-reliance among rural and urban entrepreneurs through exposure and market opportunities. Total 45 students were visited.

Visit Report to Snehalaya Orphanage, Aurangabad

Snehalaya Orphanage in Aurangabad stands as a beacon of hope for orphaned children, providing essential care, education, and support necessary for their holistic development. The visit to Snehalaya Orphanage in Aurangabad provided an opportunity to witness firsthand the commendable efforts and impact of the organization in caring for orphaned and vulnerable children.

Visit report of Indrayani Handlooms Umred Road Nagpur Participants

Department of Home- Economics organized a visit to Indrayani Handlooms on 21st Feb 2024 to Provide a deep dive into the world of traditional handloom weaving, showcasing skilled craftsmanship and the heritage of textile production. At Indrayani Handlooms, traditional handloom weaving techniques were prominently displayed. Artisans demonstrated intricate weaving processes, showcasing their expertise in creating unique patterns and designs. The visit highlighted Indrayani Handlooms' contribution to preserving cultural heritage, supporting local artisans, and promoting sustainable livelihoods through traditional handloom weaving

